

PEACE ROCK SIDES FOR SASHA AND VERA - 1

Written by

Pepi Ginsberg

EXT. PEACE ROCK DIVING ROCK AND RIVER - TILDEN TOWNSHIP - PA - AFTERNOON

A 30 foot quarry cliff juts out over the Schuylkill River, graffitied with a peace sign and other colorful tags.

A small group of high school and college kids drinking,
smoking, killing time.

Kids waiting in line to jump off the cliff.

Someone jumps.

The opposite shore - a few kids congratulating each other for the jump, brushing the algae off their legs.

Others on the opposite shore tending a bon fire.

In the water - people swimming back to the cliff side to try the jump again.

SCENE 1

EXT. TOP OF THE ROCK - CONTINUOUS

SASHA, 15, on an unluxurious towel watches VERA, 17 as Vera tries not to stare at SAM, 20, engaged in with his friends in a group nearby.

Vera flips onto her stomach and checks her phone.

Sasha looks off to watch as another kid jumps from the rock, then turns her focus back to Vera.

Vera feels Sasha's gaze. Vera takes her SCHOOL SWEATSHIRT and puts it down as a pillow.

Sasha studies Vera: her neon green bikini, her breasts, her sneakers, her legs, her hair, the water Vera nurses and the beer sitting next to her - unopened.

Vera looks over at Sam again - he drinks, catches her gaze once and turns back to his friends. Sasha notices.

Vera looks over to Sasha.

Sasha speaks quietly, has trouble making eye contact.

SASHA

I like your bathing suit.

Vera regards it.

SASHA

Ok.

Vera watches as Sasha walks over to the boys.